- Connor Redpath is a well prepared TA. He was on top of all the course material and assignments. This course had challenging Problem Sets that were to be completed through either STATA or R and he was very knowledgeable in both. In his office hours, he made himself available through zoom and in person. Connor is very understanding and promptly responded to any questions.
Connor is super sweet and approachable. He was kind enough to the take the time and give advice on future paths we can take in Economics. Overall Connor is a great TA! I would take a class with him again!

- Mr. Connor Redpath was an extremely helpful and informative TA. He was responsive to emails, presentably handsome, and cute . He answered all of our theoretical questions to the best of his abilities even though the structure of our class was limited during COVID. He was professional, cordial, and effortless in his responses. Connor was unmatched in his ability to spark my interest and was a joy to listen to! I would love to have Connor again as a TA!

- The best TA I have ever interacted with -- bar none. Connor is always prepared to discuss the problem set, the readings, or other topics in economics. He is professional, caring, and smart.
